

Programme Outcome of Science

PO1	Students acquire ethical, historic and environmental dimensions of problem and issues
PO2	An ability to apply knowledge of science and skills
PO3	Identify and evaluate current technologies and assess their applicability to address individual and organizational needs
PO4	An ability to assist in the creation of an effective project plan
PO5	Find gainful employment in respective industry or government sector as well as find employment in academic system as instructor
PO6	Student will ingrain conceptual and critical thinking aptitude
PO7	Student will become expertise in their specific subject and curricula
PO8	Basic understanding in the fundamental concepts and application of current scientific theories
PO9	Participative and experiential learning enables students to work with team spirit and collaboration
PO10	Students able to use modern library referencing and retrieval method to obtain information about topics